

TIME TO THINK ABOUT YOUR 2010 PAY RISE

As you know we received the last pay increase in August 2009, after GMB put in a submission to the pay consultation. GMB is compiling a submission soon for the potential increase for 2010. This will be a tough year because of the economic situation we all find ourselves in.

It is important that all GMB members have a say in the process and you can do this by completing the form below with your views on what you would like to see in this year's pay settlement. This might be a percentage increase or 'add ons' such as an increase in other benefits.

The slip below can be sent to your GMB Office using the FREEPOST address overleaf, free of charge, or hand it to your store Workplace Organiser who will pass it on.

If you do not have a local GMB Workplace Organiser but are interested in becoming one, please contact either your GMB Officer (details on your store notice board) or visit www.gmb.org.uk

Please remember that only GMB members are eligible to participate in the GMB pay consultation process. If you are not a GMB member join online now at www.gmb.org.uk/join or by returning the form on the back of this newsletter.

Your GMB Full Time Organiser will be seeking to arrange meetings with ASDA store staff to discuss your views on GMB's pay submission

 Please return this slip to your GMB Office using the FREEPOST address overleaf, free of charge, or hand it to your store Workplace Organiser who will pass it on. It is important that you return your completed slip by Monday 10th May 2010.
